Agenda 6. To consider and elect new directors replacing those retiring by rotation.

(Resolution: By a majority vote of shareholders attending the meeting and casting their votes)

Background Information: In compliance with Section 71 of the Public Limited Companies Act B.E. 2535 and Article 21 of the Company's Articles of Association, it provides that one-third of the Directors are required to retire from offices every year, whereby the Directors who have been in the longest term in office are required to retire by rotation. But they are entitled to be re-elected to resume the positions of the Directors of the Company. Presently, the Board of Directors of the Company has eleven directors in total. Therefore, there are four Directors who are to retire from offices by rotation in this occasion, as follows:

1. Mr. Wichai Thongtang
2. Dr. Bhichit Rattakul
3. Mr. Pornchai Kittipanyangam
4. Dr. Boonrux Yodpheth

Since the said four directors are the persons who have appropriate qualification, knowledge, ability and experience related to the businesses of the Company, which are beneficial to the business operation of the Company, is proposed to the Shareholders' meeting for consideration of the re-election of the said four directors to their offices as the directors for another term. The name list and profiles of the directors nominated to be elected as Directors to replace those retiring by rotation appears in Enclosure 3.

In addition, Mr. Lothar Richard Pehl resigned as the Director of the Company, effective from 14 November 2023, whereby the Company still has not appointed any person to fill the position of the Director of the Company to replace Mr. Lothar Richard Pehl who resigned.

Opinion of the Board: The Board of Directors having considered it carefully hereby advise the Shareholders meeting to consider as follows:

1. Re-election of Mr. Wichai Thongtang, who is retired by rotation on this occasion, to resume his office as the Director and Independent Director of the Company for another term.
2. Re-election of Dr. Bhichit Rattakul, who is retired by rotation on this occasion, to resume his office as the Director of the Company for another term.
3. Re-election of Mr. Pornchai Kittipanyangam and Dr. Boonrux Yodpheth who are retired by rotation on this occasion, to resume their offices as the Directors, Independent Directors and Audit Committee Members of the Company for another term.
4. Fixing the members of the Board of Directors of the Company to comprise 10 members, whereby it did not nominate any person to be the director of the Company in place of the position of Mr. Lothar Richard Pehl who resigned during his term.

Agenda 7. To consider and approve the remuneration of the Directors for the year 2024.

(Resolution: By the votes not less than two-third of the total number of votes of shareholders attending the meeting and having right to vote)

Background Information: In compliance with Section 90 of the Public Limited Companies Act B.E. 2535 and Article 35 of the Company’s Articles of Association, it provides that the payment of the remuneration (attendance fees) to the Board of Directors of the Company, it requires the approval from the Shareholders Meeting. The Board of Directors has considered the remuneration to the Directors in comparison with the rates of the directors’ remuneration of the same business group as well as the appropriateness for the scope of duties and responsibilities of the Board of Directors, it is hereby proposed to the Shareholders meeting for consideration of the remuneration of the Directors for the year 2024.

Opinion of the Board: The Shareholders meeting is hereby advised to approve the payment of the remuneration of the Directors for the year 2024 in the form of attendance fees with the same rate as approved in the year 2023, as follows:

1. The Attendance fees for the meeting of Board of Directors in an amount of Baht 50,000.- per meeting per person.

Articles of Association related to the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders

1. Calling of the Shareholders Meeting

Article 37. The Board of Directors shall convene an annual general meeting of shareholders within four months from the last day of the accounting period of the Company.

All other shareholders meetings of a nature apart from the above mentioned shall be called extraordinary general meetings. The Board of Directors may summon an extraordinary general meeting whenever they deem appropriate.

The meeting of shareholders may be held via electronic media as stipulated by the law on the meetings via electronic media.

A shareholder or many shareholders holding aggregate shares amounting to not less than 10% of the total amount of shares issued, may at any time make a request in writing to the Board of Directors to summon an extraordinary general meeting by clearly specifying therein the agenda and reason to purpose for such request. In this case, the Board of Directors shall summon the shareholders' meeting within forty-five days from the date the shareholders' request is received.

In case the Board of Directors does not hold the meeting within the period as prescribed in the fourth paragraph, the shareholders who subscribe their names or other shareholders holding the number of shares as required may summon the meeting by themselves within forty-five days from the completed period as prescribed in the fourth paragraph, In this regard, the meeting shall be considered as the shareholders' meeting called by the Board of Directors, whereby the Company shall be responsible for necessary expenses arising from such meeting and reasonably provide facilitation.

In case the quorum of any shareholders' meeting called by the shareholders as prescribed in the fifth paragraph is not formed according to Article 39, the shareholders as prescribed in the fifth paragraph shall be collectively responsible to the Company for expenses arising from such meeting.

Article 38. In summoning a shareholders meeting, the Board of Directors shall prepare a notice specifying the place, date, time, agenda and matters to be proposed to the meeting; as well as adequate details that clearly indicate whether such matters are proposed for acknowledgement, approval or consideration, as the case may be; and the Board of Directors' opinions on such matters. The notice shall be sent to the shareholders and the Share Registrar not less than seven days prior to the date of the meeting and published in a newspaper for three (3) consecutive days, not less than three (3) days prior to the date of the meeting.

The publication of notice of the meeting in a newspaper as prescribed in the first paragraph may be published via electronic media instead according to the criteria as specified by the Registrar.

Shareholders meetings shall be held at the head office, or a neighboring province to where the head office is situated, or any other place as the Board of Directors deems appropriate.

In case that the meeting carried out via electronic media under the third paragraph of Article 37, it shall be deemed that the head office of the Company is the venue of such meetings.

2. The Quorum

Article 39. At a shareholders meeting, there shall be not less than twenty-five (25) shareholders and proxies (if any) or not less than half the total number of shareholders holding altogether not less than one-third (1/3) of the total shares sold attending the meeting in order to constitute a quorum.

At any shareholders meeting, in the event the number of shareholders attending the meeting does not constitute a quorum within one hour after the appointed time, the meeting shall be cancelled if it was summoned at the request of shareholders. If the meeting was not summoned at the request of shareholders, another meeting shall be summoned and a notice summoning the meeting shall be sent to the shareholders not less than seven (7) days before the meeting. At such subsequent meeting, no quorum shall be necessary.

Any shares held by the Company will not be counted in determining a quorum.

Article 40. At a shareholders meeting, the Chairman of the Board of Directors shall be the Chairman of the meeting. In the event there is no Chairman of the Board of Directors, or there is but he is not present or is unable to perform his duty, if there is a Vice-Chairman, the Vice-Chairman shall act as Chairman of the meeting. If there is no Vice-Chairman, or there is but he is unable to perform his duty, the meeting may elect one shareholder present at the meeting to be the Chairman of the meeting.

Article 41. At a shareholders meeting, a shareholder may appoint a proxy who has reached maturity to attend the meeting to vote on his behalf. The instrument appointing a proxy shall specify the date and be signed by the shareholder granting the proxy in accordance with the form specified by the Share Registrar.

The instrument appointing a proxy shall be submitted to the Chairman or the person designated by the Chairman at the place of the meeting before the proxy holder attends the meeting.

An appointment of a proxy in the first paragraph may be carried out via electronic method. Such method is required to provide the safety and reliable that such appointment has been duly made by a shareholder according to the criteria as specified by the Registrar

3. Agenda of the Meeting.

Article 43. The following matters shall be transacted at annual general meeting:

- (1) Reviewing the report of the Board of Directors covering work done during the previous period;
- (2) Considering the balance sheet and the profit and loss account of the preceding fiscal year;
- (3) Considering the appropriation of profits;
- (4) Election of new directors in place of those who must retire on the expiration of their terms;
- (5) Appointment of the auditor and fixing the auditor's remuneration;
- (6) Other business.

4. Voting

Article 42. A resolution passed by a shareholders meeting shall require the following number of votes:

- (1) In normal cases, a resolution shall be adopted by a majority vote of shareholders present and voting at the meeting. In the case of a tied vote, the Chairman of the meeting shall have a casting vote.
- (2) In the following cases, a resolution shall be adopted by a vote of not less than three-fourths (3/4) of the total votes of shareholders present and entitled to vote:
 - (a) Sale or transfer, in whole or in essential part, of the business of the Company to other persons;
 - (b) Purchase or acceptance of transfer of business of another company or private company;
 - (c) The execution, amendment, or termination of contracts relating to leasing out of the business of the Company, in whole or in essential part; the entrusting of another person to manage the business affairs of the Company; or the amalgamation of the business with other persons for the purpose of profit and loss sharing;
 - (d) Amendment to the Memorandum of Association and the Articles of Association of the Company;
 - (e) Any capital increase or reduction;
 - (f) The issuance of preference shares, debentures, secured debentures, convertible debentures, warrants or other securities that the Company may issue in accordance with the law;
 - (g) The dissolution of the Company; and
 - (h) The amalgamation of the Company with other companies.

5. Remuneration of Directors and Retired Directors by rotation.

Article 19. The Board of Directors shall comprise of not less than five (5) directors and not more than thirteen (13) directors, and not less than half of the total number of directors must have residence in the Kingdom and possess the qualifications required by law.

Article 20. The shareholders meeting shall elect directors in accordance with the following rules and procedures:

- (1) Each shareholder shall be entitled to the number of votes equivalent to the number of shares held by him.
- (2) Each shareholder may exercise all the votes he has under (1) to appoint one or several persons as directors, but he may not divide his votes for any such persons to any extent.
- (3) The persons who received the most votes shall be appointed directors, depending on the requirement of directors set at such time. In the event that a number of persons receives an equal number of votes for the last directorship, rendering more than the number of directors required at such time, the Chairman shall have a casting vote.

Article 21. At every annual general meeting, one-third of the directors shall retire from office. If the number of directors is not a multiple of three, then the number nearest to one-third must retire from office.

The directors who are to retire during the first and second year following the registration of the Company shall be drawn by lots. In every subsequent year, the directors who have been longest in office shall retire. A retiring director is eligible for re-election.

Article 35. The directors shall be entitled to remuneration comprising a monthly salary, reward, meeting allowance, pension, bonus or other compensation according to the Articles of Association of the Company or the resolution of a shareholders meeting. Such remuneration may be determined as a fixed sum or formula, and to be determined from time to time, or to have continuous effect unless amended. The directors may receive allowance and benefits in accordance with the Company's regulations.

The above paragraph shall not affect the right of the employees to receive compensation where such employees are appointed as directors of the Company.

6. Allocation of the Profit and Payment of Dividend.

Article 47. The Company is prohibited from paying dividends out of other funds except profits. In case that the Company continues to record accumulated losses, the Company shall not pay any dividend.

Dividend payment is to be divided equally by the number of shares.

The Board of Directors may pay an interim dividend to shareholders from time to time if it sees that the Company has sufficient profits to do so, and shall inform the shareholders of such at the next meeting.

Dividends shall be paid within one (1) month after the date the resolution was passed by the shareholders meeting or by the Board of Directors meeting, as the case may be. A written notice thereof shall also be sent to the shareholders and the publication of the notice of the payment of dividend shall be made in a newspaper.

Article 48. The Company shall appropriate a reserve fund, from the annual net profit, at least five (5) percent of the annual net profit less the total accumulated loss carried forward (if any) until the reserve fund reaches not less than ten (10) percent of the registered capital. Further to such reserve fund, the Board of Directors may propose the shareholders meeting to approve the appropriation of another reserve fund to be used for other purposes as the Board of Directors deems appropriate for the operation of the company.
